Description: This artwork contains elements of paintings from the baroque, rococo, neoclassical and romanticism art moment and which combine together into one art piece. The idea behind it is to show the contrasts in these art styles as well as the themes the art was used to represent.

The images used in this works are

- The Swing by Jean-Honoré Fragonard (Rococo)
- Oath of the Horatii by Jacques-Louis David (Neoclassicism)
- Liberty Leading the People by Eugène Delacroix (romanticism)
- The Presentation of the Portrait of Marie de' Medici by Peter Paul Rubens (baroque)
 - Allegory of Poetry by Francois Boucher (rococo)
